

Maribeth D. Renne
Senior Consultant

Maribeth D. Renne, C.M.F., is an internationally certified Career Management Fellow. Recognized for expertise as a leadership coach and career counselor, consultant, and trainer with over 20 years of accomplishment in the corporate, academic and non-profit sectors, she has provided individualized coaching and counseling to professionals with diverse backgrounds, collaboratively managed professional teams in providing counseling services and in ensuring effective operations and quality standards, has developed and led various career management seminars, and has successfully managed numerous corporate career centers, meeting the varied needs of employees as they prepared to move up to the next level in their careers.

As SVP and Director of Counseling Services for Manchester, a human capital management firm, she established career centers for CoreStates and First Union in Philadelphia and Trenton, and for The University of Pennsylvania Health System. She teamed with Manchester professionals to pioneer a program delivering country-wide long distance career transition services to Zeneca Ag professionals, and managed the First Union Remote Career Resources Program, providing services and counseling to First Union's employees from all over the United States. Maribeth has coached professionals of all levels from companies such as JP Morgan Chase, Wachovia, Campbell Soup, Exelon, Lenox, Bristol-Myers Squibb, Blue Cross/Blue Shield and numerous others in the Delaware Valley.

Prior to joining Manchester, Maribeth delivered qualitative marketing research and project management services. A seasoned focus group moderator, she designed and conducted research to guide product development and marketing decisions for such companies at Mattel Mt. Laurel and Tyco Toy Company. Early in her career, Maribeth was a Mental Health Consultant where she initiated and developed Conflict Resolution Workshops and Training, Special Projects Director with the Pennsylvania Comprehensive Employment and Training Initiative, and Executive Director of the Blind Association.

Maribeth has been guest lecturer on areas of stress management, assertiveness, and other empowerment topics and has presented workshops for the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce, Women's Business Development Council, Small Business Administration, and numerous non-profit organizations. She is Past-President of the Philadelphia Chapter of the Association of Career Professionals International and serves as Chairman of the Certification Committee. She is a member of the ACP U.S. Country Board of Directors and has been named Governor, Institute of Career Certification International. She serves as Chairman of the Career Management Committee for Tri-State Human Resource Management Association (Tri-State HR). Ms. Renne is a member of the National Career Development Association (NCDA), the Mid-Atlantic Career Counselor Association (MACCA), and the MBA Career Services Council (MBACSC).
